Holy Family School hosts Roaring '20s-themed Gala

Holy Family School will be hosting its first HFS Annual Gala from 6:00 - 10:30 PM on Saturday, November 10th in the church's brand-new parish center.

The theme of the fundraiser is the Roaring '20s, so feel free to come as you are or dress up in a Zoot suit or flapper dress. Guests will enjoy a mix of dining, dancing and gambling at the casino-style tables with wonderful prizes for the winners.

You can be a part of this fun evening, just purchase a ticket or two, be a sponsor or donate a raffle prize. Let your imagination be your guide as you consider prize ideas. No sponsorship or donation is too small, and all are greatly appreciated.

Please visit <https://sites.google.com/view/hfsannualgala> for more information on sponsorship opportunities or tickets. To purchase tickets by mail, call the school at 610-759-5642, ext. 118 or by email to porter@holyfamily-

Sixth Sunday after Holy Cross

The Holy Gospel of Jesus Christ according to Saint Matthew 25:14-30

'For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away.

The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, "Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents." His master said to him, "Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master."

And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, "Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents." His master said to him, "Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master."

Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, "Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours."

But his master replied, "You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest.

So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

BINGO VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are in urgent need of Bingo volunteers.

Income from Bingo is used to subsidize Catholic School Education. Parents with children in Catholic school are strongly advised to give a few hours each month to help out at Bingo.

We will happily accept all volunteers!

Please contact Fr. Youssef or Eva Farhat if you wish to volunteer.
