The Fifth Sunday of Pentecost

The Holy Gospel of Jesus Christ according to Saint Matthew 10:1-7
 Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness.
 These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.
 These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near."

Statutes of the Eparchy of Saint Maron of Brooklyn Promulgated by Bishop Gregory on Pentecost Sunday

For the sake of clarity, uniformity, and impartiality, the Statutes of the Eparchy of Saint Maron of Brooklyn have been formulated to guide the clergy, religious, and laity, in our Eparchial mission of sanctifying, teaching, and governing the Christian faithful in our Eparchy.

These Statutes have been revised and reformulated based upon the precepts of the Holy Scriptures, and the norms established by the Holy See, the Maronite Church, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, and prior Eparchial legislation. Also considered, were the customs of our Church in the United States and, perhaps most importantly, years of real pastoral experience.

Please take particular note of Statue 93 on page 13 of the report: "Eulogies by the laity may be given at the Wake, the cemetery, or the mercy meal. In the church, however, only the priest or deacon may deliver a eulogy which may be incorporated into his homily. No eulogy is to be given by the laity in the church"

The Statues will be available on our website for you to download and read. Call the pastor with any questions.
