Sunday of the Faithful Departed

The Holy Gospel of Jesus Christ according to Saint Luke 16:19-31

There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham.

The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, "Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames." But Abraham said, "Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us."

He said, "Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father's house for I have five brothers that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment." Abraham replied, "They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them." He said, "No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent." He said to him, "If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead."

Condolences

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of whom the Lord has called to his heavenly home. Eternal rest grant unto George, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

Saint Maron

February 9th marks the feast of our patron, Saint Maron, born around 350 AD in Cyrrhus near Antioch. According to the historian Theodoret, St. Maron devoted himself to great spiritual works in pursuit of perfect wisdom. Like a steadfast soldier discerning between virtue and action, he embraced a life of holiness. In God's generosity toward His saints, He granted Maron the grace to heal the sick and cast out evil through the power of prayer alone.

As we honor his feast, let us ask God to bless us with the same grace He bestowed upon Maron, so that we may imitate his humility and holiness and bear witness to Christ in a wounded world longing for healing and love.

Prayer for the Faithful Departed

Eternal Father, source of all mercy and compassion, look kindly upon the souls of Your servants who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. In Your loving kindness, forgive their sins, purify them of every fault, and welcome them into the joy of Your eternal presence.

Grant them the light of Your face, the peace of Your Kingdom, and the rest that comes from dwelling in Your love forever. May the prayers of the Church, the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the merits of Your saints bring them swiftly into the fullness of life in Christ.

Comfort those who mourn with the hope of the Resurrection, and strengthen our hearts until the day we are reunited with them in the glory of Your Kingdom. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
